First, let me disclose my perspective. I have always voted my party's Presidential nominee, sometimes split my ticket down-ballot. First I voted for Barry Goldwater, then an unbroken string of Democratic nominees. The proposals I found in this book surpassed my expectations. I have no reason to regret that I voted for Hillary Clinton in the primary. In this book are extensive proposals to strengthen the economic safety net, quite a populist agenda. Economic inequality has been growing in this country over the last 30 years. In the aggregate I believe her agenda offers promise to halt or reverse this economic trend. I must say she has quite an ambitious agenda. It will take a supportive Congress, elected by a supportive American public. They must give her victories in off-year elections, namely 2018 and 2022.

5-stars to Bernard & Britney on this book. As a Pennsylvania voter I'm happy to say I esp enjoyed reason #44 to vote 4 Hills & in PHL the DNC was great. This book is most definitely a must read for everyone!!

The authors have done a terrific job making the case for Hillary Clinton. Her vast array of professional experiences coupled with her perspective as a daughter, wife, and mother make her uniquely qualified to lead the country as we struggle to 'form a more perfect union.' While the Clinton presidency will not lead to equality for women and girls overnight it will no-doubt change the political landscape and inspire a generation of boys and girls to think differently about women's political leadership.

Very informative and insightful!

I honestly was on the fence about voting for Hilary before reading this book. The authors have laid out her history, her beliefs, and her plan for America, in an easy to digest and honestly fun to read way. If you are looking for more information on Hilary, and proof that she will do what she says she will-read this book!
