I am going to Italy soon and wanted to make sure I visited the towns where original crafts were made. This is a pretty good overview of the traditional crafts and very helpful. Now I can focus on what crafts I want to see and have a direction of where to travel. The scope of the book and the towns are quite spread out, so now I have to plan accordingly. The photos were very lovely. I enjoyed the care in which the writer took in addressing the traditional arts.

Beautifully enhanced with 175 color illustrations, photographer John Ferrer Sims' Handmade In Italy: A Celebration Of Italian Artisans Working In Ceramics, Textiles, Glass, Stone, Metal, And Wood combines an informed and informative text with gloriously reproduced color photography to showcases the best of Italian artistry in paint, sculpture, glassmaking, fabrics, stone, wood, and ceramics. From brocades and velvets, to Venetian mirrors and damask steel blades, Handmade In Italy showcases a collection that is as diverse as it is impressive!

Good book if you're planning to visit Italy and want information about contemporary Italian artists.

Actually went to see one of the artists when we were in Italy. Great resource for us! Thank you!
