Christmas In Norway: How The Norwegians Celebrate Jul

Synopsis

Delve into this short Kindle book to discover how Norwegians celebrate Christmas. From baking seven kinds of cakes and cookies to leaving treats outside for the guardian of their house, Norwegians observe many traditions at Christmas time. Learn about:- The concept of Jul- The Christmas timeline in Norway- The Norwegian Santa Claus- Christmas calendars- Christmas songs and hymns- Traditional food and drink And a whole lot more! Author David Nickel is a British journalist and blogger who moved to Norway in 2011. Since then he's been an avid blogger about the people and places he encounters in Scandinavia. Christmas in Norway is his first booklet for Kindle, and an attempt to begin to answer some of the questions that flood his inbox every day, from all corners of the globe. Merry Christmas - God jul!

Customer Reviews

A simple and concise guide to the christmas holiday. The author really seems to enjoy Norway. It makes me really want to visit.

Concise, informative, accurate. As an American who has lived in the Bergen area of Norway for almost eight years, I learned new aspects of how my adopted country celebrates the Christmas season. A very enjoyable read!

Interesting reading, but did not really provide us with what the title promised Informative and entertaining! A modern take on Norwegian Christmas traditions, as experienced by a non-Norwegian. Great for anyone curious about Norway, or for Norwegian-Americans wanting updated traditions.
